taking care of you

Introduction

Welcome to your guide which shows you how to travel to Forth Valley Royal Hospital by bus if you live within the Clackmannanshire Council area or West Fife.

This guide includes timetables for services 60, H1, H2, X24, X26 and X27 which provide a direct connection to Forth Valley Royal Hospital. It also includes a rail timetable between Alloa and Larbert.

From 25 November 2013 all journeys on service H1 and H2 will operate direct via Clackmannanshire Bridge and no longer serve Kincardine. There will be minor changes to arrival and departure times at Forth Valley Royal Hospital.

From 25 November 2013 certain journeys on the X24, X26 and X27 services will be diverted via Forth Valley Hospital. These will provide a direct connection to Glasgow, Cumbernauld, Kincardine, Dunfermline and Halbeath Park & Ride and other destinations in Fife.

In the centre of your guide you will find a map showing all direct bus services to Forth Valley Royal Hospital and also the main connecting bus services. If your service isn't shown then simply travel to one of the interchange points highlighted on the map then catch a direct bus to Forth Valley Royal Hospital.

We recommend that you visit www.travelinescotland.com or telephone 0871 200 22 33 to check up-to-date bus times before starting your journey. Calls cost 10p/min from BT landlines. Charges from other operators or mobiles may vary. Alternatively you can obtain bus timetables from your local travel centre.

Concessionary passes are accepted on all bus services shown in this guide. Single, return and season tickets are also available. Please tell the driver where you wish to travel to and they will be able to advise you about the best value ticket for your journey.
