

Making A Gift In Your Will

What Is Legacy Giving?

Leaving a gift in your will is a way for your generosity to last beyond your own lifetime.

You may decide to leave a specific sum of money or an item such as a painting or jewellery or you or you may wish to donate the remainder of your estate once your family and loved ones have been provided for.

Legacy Giving is the largest single source of income to UK charities and is completely free of inheritance tax.

Who Can I Leave A Legacy To?

You can request that your gift is used for a particular purpose or that it is left to Forth Valley Giving, in which case the Trustees of the Charity will ensure that it is used where it is most needed.

How Do I Arrange This?

All you have to do is consult your Solicitor. Alternatively, we can offer you free advice and assistance through the NHS Scotland Central Legal Office. Remember, even if you already have a will, you can make an amendment to it at any time.

Donations & Legacies

Forth Valley Giving

Forth Valley Giving is the operating name of the NHS Forth Valley Endowments Funds. Our primary purpose is to secure donations for services, activities and amenities which complement the core work of NHS Forth Valley and enrich the patient experience.

There are currently more than 300 different Funds within NHS Forth Valley which fall within one of the following categories:

- Mental Health
- Learning Disabilities
- Elderly
- Women & Children
- Surgical/Medical
- Intermediate Care
- Clinical Services/Clinical Facilities
- General

All our donations are held separately from the money used to provide day to day NHS services and are spent in accordance with the wishes of donors.

In recent years we have funded:

- Sensory gardens in local Community Hospitals;
- Trips, outings and music for elderly people;
- Support for families affected by mental illness;
- A rapid response service for families in crisis;
- A social hub for mental health patients;
- Support for babies with feeding concerns;
- A 'hospice at home' with Strathcarron Hospice.

Gift Aid is a scheme available to charities which allows them to claim an extra 25p for every £1 you donate. That's as long as you've paid the basic rate of tax and make the donation from your own funds. This means your gift is worth more to us at no extra cost to you.
